ANNIVERSARY

Milo Grocery Observes Birthday

One year old!

With this week's grocery ad, full of extra-special bargains, Milo's Grocery department celebrates its first anniversary under its present management.

Frank Reynolds and Al Zurcher, known familiarly to Daly City people as "Frank and Al," took over Milo's Grocery department from Safeway, August 14, 1940.

Reynolds' statement that there has been "a substantial increase" in the business since he and his partner took over is certainly a modest claim. There is now on hand in their department over $15,000 worth of groceries.

The partners, on this occasion of their first anniversary in serving Daly City people, wish to "thank all their friends and customers who have done so much to help them build up a business worthy of Daly City."

"Frank and Al" also own a grocery store, called the "Trader's Groceteria" on Fillmore street in San Francisco.

Jellies That "Jell"

By Frances Lee Barton

IT'S jelly time again. Millions of housewives are making jams and jellies of different flavors as berries and fruits are in season — stocking those tasties that make winter meals so appetizing.

Follow the throng but be sure that your jellies "jell." A recipe like the following assures success to the new jelly maker, or the older one who has tried before and been disappointed:

Red Currant Mint Jelly

5 cups (2½ lbs.) juice; ¾ cup (3 oz.) spearmint leaves and stems, packed; 7 cups (3 lbs.) sugar; ½ bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare juice, crush about 4 pounds fully ripe red currants. Wash spearmint and chop. Add mint and 1 cup water to crushed currants; bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

Using high comedy to solve their light-hearted problems, Burgess Meredith, Merle Oberon and Melvyn Douglas scramble love and romance in Ernst Lubitsch's "That Uncertain Feeling," which Sol Lesser is now presenting at the Daly City Theatre.

Women Healthier

According to medical authorities, women are healthier than men. For every man who reaches the age of 100, eight women attain that age.

Not Religious

It has been estimated that only about 5 per cent of London's population concerns itself with church going.

FRIED CHICKEN with a luxurious ALMOND-CUCUMBER GRAVY

by Dorothy Greig

YOU'VE never tasted anything so good as crisp brown fried chicken smothered in this gravy. To the delicate succulence of the chicken itself is added a smooth savory flavor blend of creamy mushrooms, shredded almonds and gently sautéed cucumbers.

For all it is a luxury gravy, there's nothing complicated about the making of it. We simply use as our base condensed cream of mushroom soup—like this:

The Gravy:

2 tablespoons butter
½ cucumber (6 to 7 inches long)
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup light cream
¼ cup shredded almonds

Peel the cucumber and cut into small cubes, about ½ inch square. Cook the cucumber in butter until soft which takes 10-15 minutes. Add the cream of mushroom soup and mix well. Then add the cream and shredded almonds. Heat, but do not boil. Serve over the Fried Chicken.

The Fried Chicken:

Select tender young fryers, about 2½ pounds each. Cut into pieces for serving, wash and dry. Roll each piece in seasoned flour, dip in egg slightly beaten with 2 tablespoons of water added, then roll in bread crumbs. Place large pieces of butter or chicken fat in a skillet and when hot, brown the chicken quickly on all sides. Reduce the heat and cook slowly until the chicken is tender. Serve with "Almond-Cucumber Gravy". Serves 8.

Plum Treats For Winter

By Frances Lee Barton

ACROSS the foam 'twixt me and you
Bavarians may be taboo.

A Red Bavarian!
"Oh My!"
We think of bombs dropped from the sky.
But over here—
God bless our land
Red Plum Bavarian is grand.

Why not prepare a batch today? This recipe explains the way:

Red Plum Bavarian

8 red plums, cooked; 1½ cups plum juice; 1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin; dash of salt; 1 cup heavy cream.

To cook plums, combine plums, ½ cup sugar, and 1 cup water, cover, and simmer until just tender. Drain, reserving juice; measure 1½ cups. Cut plums in large pieces. Dissolve gelatin in hot plum juice; add salt. Chill until cold and syrupy. Fold in cream, whipped only until thick and shiny, but not stiff. Fold in cooked plums. Chill. When slightly thickened, pile in sherbet glasses or large bowl Serves 6.

NUTRITION INFORMATION

A little after five one afternoon, on our picnic grounds at Hyde Park, representatives of various organizations in the county gathered to discuss with state representatives what had been accomplished in spreading nutrition information. Miss Ruth Wheeler of Vassar college, who had been made chairman by the Cornell university group, which is in charge of this work in the state, has been ill, and so the work is not completely organized.

I felt a good deal was accomplished for they named a radio and publicity chairman and talked over methods of getting information to the people of our county. A home demonstration agent is being sent by the Emergency Home Demonstration committee to a group of counties, including Dutchess, and our county agent, Mr. Shepherd, called a meeting at which women were named to take charge of the arrangements for the agent's work.

This seems to me very important, because she can help us to accomplish things which are now being asked of the women of the United States of America. First we may see that our schools are used as demonstration centers for child feeding. That means that every available source of supply must be tapped for food to be used daily.

BACK IN WASHINGTON

We reached Washington, D. C., from Hyde Park in time for lunch the next day and the visitors began to arrive at once. I did have a little time to talk over one or two important family things with the President before he was again engulfed in government affairs.

At 4:40, I went to the airport with Jimmie and Rommie, who were starting for the West coast and waited to meet my daughter, who was coming in from Seattle, Wash., to attend Mayor LaGuardia's meeting on civilian volunteer participation in defense.

Anna was about twenty minutes late, which meant that a gentleman who was waiting to hand me a gift for the president sent by the mayor of an English city, had to wait for nearly twenty minutes. However, he was very kind about it. Afterwards, Dr. Frederick Douglas Patterson, the president of Tuskegee institute, came to tell me how well the training of the flying cadets is progressing there, and that Tuskegee is being named as a recreational area for Negro men on leave from Fort Benning.

PRESIDENT'S MEMORY

Four of us sat on the south portico of the White House one night having dinner; the President, our daughter, Anna; our cousin, Monroe D. Robinson; and I. Mr. Robinson had just returned from Peru and was telling the President of his impressions. He thinks Peru is one of the most interesting countries he has ever visited and cannot wait to return. Mr. Robinson has made some real friends and feels that they like him just as much as he likes them.

In the midst of his talk, my husband, in a very quiet way, said: "Have you ever happened to see an old book which has an illustration of a Peruvian Indian playing golf? They played golf in Peru years before they played it in Scotland. To all intents and purposes it was the same game except that instead of having to end up in a little tin cup, they had to hit a very small stick."

Monroe's face was a study. He had hardly expected to be told something about Peru, especially something which he felt might even be news to some of his Peruvian friends! Then my husband went on to explain that in college, he had bought the books every year for the Fly Club and Pudding Club libraries. For the Fly club, he had concentrated on books of old travel, and among them had found this particular book, which he considered the most interesting and which furnished the basis of some of his knowledge of Peru.

What wouldn't I give to have as retentive a memory as the President has, and at the same time always to be able to reach back into my mind and pick out the particular thing applicable to the conversation of the moment. Hours afterwards I can sometimes remember something which would have been very valuable, if it had only come to me when I was actually talking.

LA GUARDIA GROUP

The next day was given up entirely to the meeting held in the White House by Mayor LaGuardia's committee. Five members have been named from every corps area and represent all the different interests in our national life.

After lunch, the details were taken up and I hope that every member of the committee will go home knowing what the first steps in this program actually mean in the way of work. The future alone can tell how it will develop.

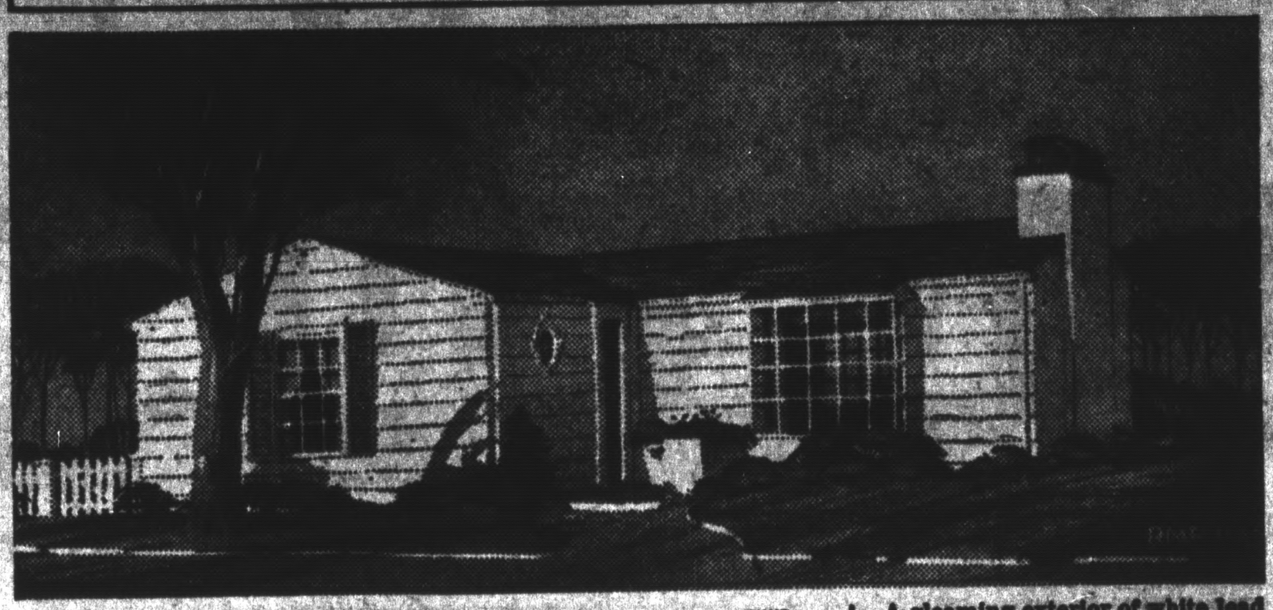
Labors of Hercules

The 12 tasks of great difficulty imposed on Hercules by the Argive king were as follows: "To slay the Nemean lion, kill the Lernean hydra, catch and retain the Arcadian stag, destroy the Erymanthian boar, cleanse the stables of King Augeas, destroy the cannibal birds of the Lake Stymphalis, take captive the Cretan bull, catch the horses of the Thracian Diomedes, get possession of the girdle of Hyppolyta, queen of the Amazons; take captive the oxen of the monster Geryon, get possession of the apples of the Hesperides, and bring up from the infernal regions the three-headed dog Cerverus.

Florida's Edible Fish

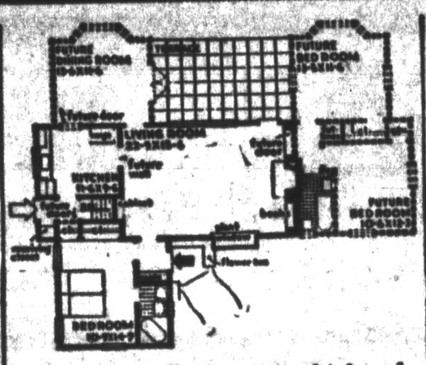
Of the more than 300,000,000 pounds of fish caught in Florida waters annually, little more than one-third are of the edible variety, according to R. L. Dowling, state supervisor of conservation. The non-food fish, mostly menhaden and sharks, are used in the manufacture of fertilizer, oils and novelties, Dowling explained.

A DOWRY HOUSE



A HOUSE for a bride should be a happy mixture of romance and practicability. Romance has been recognized in Dowry House by being just big enough for two, and practicability has received its due in the working out of a plan that is easily expanded should additions to the family necessitate enlarged living space.

Unlike many growing houses, this design has sufficiently large basic units—a kitchen 11 feet 6 inches by 9 feet, 6 inches and a living room 22 feet, 9 inches by 15 feet, 6 inches—to accommodate a larger family. All that could be needed is the addition of a two bedroom and bath wing which only requires punching out one set of bookshelves. To add the dining room is even simpler—a kitchen window becomes a door.



A gleaming exterior of white lead paint which is tinted in turn to meet interior decorative requirements will provide beauty, cleanliness and serviceability for years to come.

Complete building plans and specifications are available for this house for $1.00. Included with the plans is a cardboard cut-out model of the house. The model can be readily colored to visualize exactly what the completed house will look like. Address your request for house plan to this newspaper or to the Ladies' Home Journal for plan No. 397.

Canada Has Great Lakes to Pacific Coast Highway

FOR years, Canada has dreamt of a motor-road from sea to sea, and while this ambition still falls a little short of fulfilment—a short section remains to be constructed in Ontario—the Trans-Canada Highway now is completed from the Great Lakes to Vancouver Island, a distance of some 2,200 miles.

In the West it reaches the apex of its scenic grandeur in the Provinces of Alberta and British Columbia, where it penetrates the Rocky Mountains through three magnificent National Parks, Banff, Yoho and Kootenay.

On entering British Columbia, it becomes that province's Highway No. 1, and swings around what is known as the "Big Bend" of the Columbia River. Not far from its source in the ice fields of the same name, the mighty Columbia first flows north before abruptly changing its southward course around the butt of the Selkirk Range to cross the International Boundary some 300 miles below. In the vast loop formed by the Big Bend probably the finest scenery in Canada is found. This whole section is of particular interest to visitors from the United States because it affords them an opportunity to trace from its very beginnings the great river which plays so important a part in the economy of the Pacific Northwest and in its early history. Leaving the Big Bend, Highway No. 1 goes on to the Coast through British Columbia, traversing on the way, the spectacular gorge of the Fraser Canyon, where two great transcontinental railroads cling to opposite banks, mere threads of steel in the immensity of this world-famous gorge.

Geniuses Were Dull

Most of the world's geniuses were not bright children, but were queer, dull, or shy, according to Dr. George Barton of Carnegie Institution of Washington, recognized as the leading historian of science.

Chemicals in Textiles

Textile fibers, including cotton, linen, rayons, silk and wool, are built up mainly from carbon, hydrogen and oxygen, although silk has in addition some nitrogen, and wool has nitrogen and sulphur.

Apple Blossom Time

Mrs. Sadie Tuxford, Redwood City, Calif., would like to have someone analyze the "secret urges" which have pushed her two-year-old apple tree to blossom five times within a year and to bear four crops of fruit.

Longest River

The Mississippi-Missouri, generally considered one river by geographers, is the longest in the world. From the fountain-head of the Missouri, in the Rockies on the southwest border of Montana, its total length is 4,221 miles. From the source of its other branch at Lake Itasca in northern Minnesota, the so-called Mississippi proper is 2,553 miles long. The second longest river is the Nile, 4,000 miles from its remotest headstream, the Kagera, which flows into Lake Victoria. The Amazon river in South America has the greatest basin—2,772,000 square miles.

More Interest in Sports

Is interest in athletic affairs slackening because of the European war? Not if attendance at baseball games is any criterion. At the Yankee stadium this summer, 84,000 paid to see a game, the third largest crowd in baseball history. And in the Pacific Coast league, Seattle, until June 8, 1 , drew 27,000 more admissions than during the corresponding period in 1939, and Seattle led the league in attendance in 1939. It seems that people want to get away for a couple of hours from the war news in Europe and welcome the opportunity of going to the ball game or playing a bit of golf.

Special Stamp

The National Society of Daughters of the American Colonists has asked the post office department to issue a special stamp to honor Mary Ball, mother of George Washington.

Unwanted Silk

Because of the low American demand for raw silk, the fiber has been piling up unsold in Yokohama and Kobe, and reelers are trying to sell so as to get cash to buy cocoons.

SAVORY TOMATO SAUCE for Corned Beef Hash

Dorothy Greig

CORNED BEEF HASH is like the little girl with the curl in the middle of her forehead who, when she was good, was very very good.

Pan crisped, robustly flavored and served so hot it fairly sizzles on the plate, corned beef hash is certainly very very good.

Crowned with a fresh poached egg, most people will vote it even better. But I have a further suggestion to make, it's for a tomato sauce—a special tomato sauce. It is a savory blend of condensed tomato soup, herb vinegar and spicy cloves, cinnamon and brown sugar. You whisk it together quickly and pour it hot over your pan browned hash. Wonderful!

The Hash

1 can (16 ozs.) corned beef hash
4 eggs
4 tablespoons "Hot Savory Tomato Sauce"

Chill the corned beef hash and open both ends of the can. Push contents out whole and slice into 4 slices. Place in an oiled baking pan and top with 1 tablespoon of Hot Savory Tomato Sauce. Dot with butter and put under the broiler until heated through. Place a poached egg on each slice of hash and pour more of the Hot Savory Tomato Sauce over the egg.

Hot Savory Tomato Sauce

1 can condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons tarragon vinegar
½ teaspoon cinnamon, ground
¼ teaspoon cloves

Heat and serve over "Corned Beef Hash with Poached Eggs."

Vanilla Ice Cream with Chocolate Sauce

Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor, August 7, 1941

1¼ cups Pet Milk — ¼ cup cold water
1 package vanilla ice cream powder* — 1 teaspoon vanilla

Chill 1 cup milk until icy cold. Meanwhile, put ice cream powder in bowl. Stir in gradually a mixture of remaining ¾ cup cold milk, the water and vanilla. Chill thoroughly. Whip chilled milk with rotary egg beater, or electric beater at high speed, until stiff. Fold into chilled milk mixture. Freeze, without stirring, in mechanical refrigerator tray at coldest temperature, or in a mold buried in a mixture of 3 parts crushed ice to 1 part ice cream salt. Serve with Chocolate Sauce (See Below). Serves 6.

*If Jell-O ice cream powder is used, you will need ¾ cup.

Chocolate Sauce

1 cup sugar — 3 tablespoons white corn syrup
½ cup cocoa — 1 cup Pet Milk
¼ cup water — 1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix together sugar and cocoa. Stir in water. Add corn syrup. Boil to 234° F., or until a few drops form a soft ball when dropped into cold water. Remove from heat. Stir in milk and vanilla. Serve warm or cold on Vanilla Ice Cream (See Above), plain cake or other desserts. Serves 6.
